

South Shore Chamber's Nonprofit Members 2022-23 Resource Directory

© 2022 South Shore Chamber of Commerce, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

Welcome to the first resource directory of nonprofits servicing the South Shore!

The South Shore Chamber of Commerce is a major supporter of nonprofits of all missions, sizes, and 501(C) classifications. So much so, we created a group over 7 years ago called the NPO Group to provide additional support to our growing list of member organizations. The foremost goal of the group is to serve as a peer-to-peer professional group to all nonprofit member employees ranging from leadership and fundraising to marketing and human resources. Developed and led by the NPO Group's Steering Team, educational programming and networking opportunities are offered throughout the year. Core to its mission, the NPO Group works to raise awareness of the importance of nonprofits in the region as an industry sector, with a significant employer base, and offering a wide range of services that support our 25 communities and beyond.

We asked our regional nonprofit members to complete a survey with the goal to share this reference tool to all 1200+ members. The primary benefits include:

- Awareness of various organizations, their unique missions, and services provided
- List of their social channels and websites plus contact information to learn more about them and how to connect
- Knowledge of each organization's top fundraising needs & opportunities to encourage volunteerism across the region

For more information on becoming a member of the SSCC NPO Group, please contact

Julie Williams, Vice President, jwilliams@southshorechamber.org

Located: Rockland

Website: www.southshore2030.com

Sector: Economic Development

Mission: Our mission is to preserve the quality of life on the South Shore and help our local communities create the environment that attracts future sustainable development and economic growth.

Types of services: community development; technical assistance; coalition-building; economic development advocacy; development forums & events; local community assistance

Our South Shore 2030 Plan builds on the idea that businesses emerge or relocate to communities where there is a supply of talent and interesting, diverse, and attractive places to live, work, and enjoy a high quality of life.

For our plan to be a success, we must address 3 key challenges:

- an aging workforce
- inadequate infrastructure
- expected job loss due to shrinking industries and the pandemic

To do this, we need to:

- attract younger workforce to the South Shore
- address our infrastructure needs and increase capacity for growth
- and attract new and diverse businesses to the region
